EXPLANATORY NOTES FOR THE 1939 NATIONAL GUARD REGISTER

1. Publication.—"The Chief of the National Guard Bureau will publish from time to time an official register of the National Guard." The National Guard Register is a directory designed to show all federally recognized National Guard organizations and the classification of National Guard officers as to assignment and record of service.

2. Arrangement.—Under "Stations of Organizations" is shown National Guard organizations, by General Headquarters Reserve, Corps, and Army. The main body of the Register is arranged in alphabetical order of States, showing the recognized organizations and the officers assigned thereto. In each State the names of recognized active National Guard officers are followed by those officers in the Inactive National Guard. Each page is arranged in two columns separated by a vertical line. Organizational designations and the names of officers with other pertinent data appear in the first column and the corresponding history, chronological data, or record of service in the second column.

3. Data.—In the main body the first column shows the organization and its station, the names of officers and warrant officers assigned to the organization, and certain data on each officer to include his grade, the State and date of his birth, service awards, college or university degrees, graduates of Class MS & MI ROTC institutions, graduation at general and special service schools (officers only), aeronautical rating, and his present status in the Officers' Reserve Corps and National Guard of the United States. The second column shows the histories of each organization, including date of Federal recognition and subsequent redesignations, and the record of service of each officer and warrant officer.

4. Histories and coats of arms.—The inclusion of brief histories of organizations, with blazons and descriptions of approved coats of arms, inaugurated in 1928, is continued, as far as practicable, in this edition, together with descriptions of badges now authorized for wear by the personnel of noncolor and nonstandard bearing organizations. As the same crest is used for the coat of arms of every color-bearing organization in a State, the blazon and description of the crest is published at the head of the first page of the section pertaining to each State. When an organization adopts a shield of which the principal metal and color are not in accord with the heraldic crest-wreath (twist) as blazoned, the metal and color of the crest-wreath will be changed to conform to the principal metal and color of the shield. Unless otherwise stated distinctive insignia and badges will be worn by enlisted men as provided in paragraph 39d (2) (c), AR 600-40 as changed, and by officers on upper portion of shoulder loops of service and white coats and olive-drab shirts; by both on the front of service hat midway between band and crease.

5. Service.—The record of service includes enlisted and commissioned service in the Organized Militia or the National Guard, and in the authorized Federal forces. Prior to July 1, 1916, officers are credited with State service while serving under appointment by the State; subsequent thereto credit for commissioned service is given while in a federally recognized status. State enlisted service subsequent to July 1, 1916, is credited only when assigned to a federally recognized National Guard unit. Service at the Military or Naval Academy is included. OTC or SATC service is shown except where such service overlaps enlisted or commissioned service. Service under foreign governments is not shown.

6. Form.—A record that includes both enlisted and commissioned service is shown in two separate blocks. The service in each block is arranged in chronological order of dates. Enlisted service appears in italics and commissioned service in roman type.

7. Style.—Punctuation is reduced to a minimum; abbreviations are used to the maximum. The record of service is limited to grade, branch, and inclusive dates. Each period of service includes such data. All grades authorized in the applicable arm or services are used excepting specialists' ratings. No reference is made to the organizations in which an individual served or to the manner of separation from service. The word "to" indicates a termination of service. Each period of service is continuous from date of entrance until terminated on the date following the word "to" except in some cases of a last enlistment period preceding commissioned service. Service in the Federal forces, in the ORC, and in forces or States other than the National Guard of the individual's present State appears in brackets. Active service in the Navy, Marine Corps, Public Health Service, Coast Guard, or Coast & Geodetic Survey is preceded by "F" and appropriate abbreviations. Service in the United States Army is indicated by "F" only. Service in Federal Reserve forces is indicated by appropriate abbreviations. The style adopted attempts to prevent an overlap of service as to dates or class.

8. Brackets.—Brackets are used as follows: In the first column to show a commission in a lower grade authorized in lieu of one in a higher grade, and to show the latest status in the Officers' Reserve Corps, and National Guard of the United States; in the second column to show service in the ORC, Federal forces, National Guard of the United States, and all other forces except Organized Militia or National Guard service in the individual's present State. A period of State service that runs concurrently with Federal service is interrupted but not broken by brackets.

9. Parentheses.—Parentheses are used in only a few cases and then only for descriptive purposes.

10. Officers' Reserve Corps and National Guard of the United States.—The date of acceptance and note the date of appointment is shown. The latest acceptance of appointment or reappointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps and National Guard of the United States appears in brackets in the first column and shows the arm or service, grade, date, and serial number. Coterminous appointments are shown only in column 1. Service under 5-year appointments is shown in an officer's service in column 2, even though such service may overlap enlisted or commissioned service in the National Guard. Officers' Reserve Corps and National Guard of the United States duty service appearing in the second column is continuous except where a termination is stated. Periods of active duty under reserve commissions are indicated by appropriate notations.

11. Longevity.—The longevity pay of officers is based on commissioned service only. Full time is authorized for commissioned service in the Organized Militia or the National Guard, or in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Public Health Service, Naval Militia, or National Naval Volunteers. Full time is allowed for active duty and one-half time for inactive duty under reserve commissions held in the Public Health Service Reserve and the Officers' Reserve Corps. Full time is allowed for active duty and one-half time for inactive duty under reserve commissions held in the Naval Reserve and Marine Corps Reserve prior to February 28, 1935, and subsequent thereto full time is computed for all periods during which such commissions are held. Service in the Inactive National Guard does not count for longevity purposes, but during that period one-half time is credited as the officer holds a commission in the National Guard of the United States.

12. Pay.—Officers will be entitled to longevity pay in accordance with the record of commissioned service stated in the latest edition of the National Guard Register or amendments thereto issued on NGB Form 3-d and 3-a. Such record or amendments thereto is conclusive and final in the determination of all questions as to prior service. Other amendments consist of changes in status of officers due to promotion, reappointment in a different arm or service, transfer to other organizations, or transfer to the Inactive National Guard (see par. 11) as published on NGB Forms 3a, b, and e; which forms automatically amend the current issue of the Official National Guard Register and as the officer's service is continuous in such cases no new NGB Form 3-d is issued. Longevity pay is not authorized for armory drills.

13. Vacancies.—Vacancies in commissioned grades are shown for a recognized organization or for an authorized allotment of commissioned personnel except in State Staff. A commission in a lower grade authorized in lieu of one in a higher grade is shown for the higher grade in brackets under the individual's name and indicated by the words "(Par. 7d NGR 15)."

14. Regular Army officers.—The names of Regular Army officers, active and retired, commissioned in the National Guard are shown in the Register with the organizations to which assigned. The data on such officers will be limited as their service appears in the Official Army Register. In the first column will appear the name and National Guard grade, with Regular Army grade and branch. The second column shows only grade, arm or service, and date of Federal recognition as National Guard officers. In the cases of retired officers coterminous appointments in the Officers' Reserve Corps are shown in column 1.

15. Corrections.—Errors and omissions should be reported by individual officers to the Chief of the National Guard Bureau, through the State adjutant general, who should verify the corrected statement of service.

16. Addresses.—The National Guard Bureau does not maintain a directory of the home addresses of National Guard officers. The official address of an officer is the organization to which he is assigned or through the adjutant general's office of his State.

17. Abbreviations.—The use of abbreviations is restricted to those published in regulations. As a means of ready reference the following are given:

Crest: That for regiments of Ariz NG. WREATH: Argent and gules

Motto: CUIDADO (Take care)

Description: The shield is white, the old Inf color. The red saltire cross recalls the fact that the regiment was organized in 1865 for the Civil War. Officially the Civil War did not end in Texas and west of Texas until 1866. The arrows indicate the regiment's early service fighting Apache Indians. While organized for Civil War service and replacing the Calif Vols who drove the Confederates out of Ariz their whole service was against the Apaches, although undoubtedly preventing any attempt by the Confederates to recapture Ariz from positions they occupied in NMex. The motto has two applications—a warning to those who might oppose the regiment and a caution to those who belong to it

ARKANSAS

CARL E. BAILEY, Governor, Commander in Chief
DANIEL B. BYRD, Brigadier General, The Adjutant General
Maj. NEIL G. ROMICH, QMC, USP and DO

CREST: Approved 11 Nov 29. On a wreath of and azure above two sprays of apple blossoms proper a diamond argent charged with four mullets azure, one in upper point and three in lower, within a bordure of the last bearing 25 mullets of the second.

DESCRIPTION: The apple blossom is the State flower of Arkansas. The diamond-shaped device, taken from the State flag, signifies that Arkansas is the only diamond-bearing State in the Union; the 25 stars on the border show that it was the twenty-fifth State admitted to the Union; the three stars in the lower part typify the three countries to which the State has belonged, namely, Spain, France, and the United States, while the upper one commemorates the Southern Confederacy. The territory was originally a part of the Louisiana Purchase and the twists of the wreath are accordingly gold and blue.

HAROLD H. RICHARDSON, Brigadier General, The Adjutant General, and USP and DO

CREST: Approved 6 Mar 22. On a wreath or and gules a fasces paleways proper with ribbon of red, white, and blue.

DESCRIPTION: The fasces appears on the seal of the State. It is a bundle of rods with a battle ax bound together with the ribbon. It was a symbol of authority in the Roman Republic. Singly the rods are easily broken, bound together they are unbreakable. The name of the State is of Spanish origin and a large portion of its area was partly territory of the Texas annexation and partly of the Mexican War annexation. The colors of the heraldic wreath or torse are accordingly gold and red.

ILLINOIS

HENRY HORNER, Governor, Commander in Chief
LAWRENCE V. REGAN, Brigadier General, The Adjutant General
Lt. Col. RICHARD SWANSON, FD, USP and DO

CREST: Approved 5 Feb 23; amended 14 Aug 24. On a wreath, or and azure, upon a grassy field the blockhouse of old Fort Dearborn proper.

DESCRIPTION: The Fort Dearborn blockhouse represents one of the earliest and most famous of the military establishments of the United States in the Northwest Territory. While not the first place in Illinois to have an American garrison, it was in reality the first permanent fort established. The original white exploration and settlement within the State was French, and the twists of the wreath are accordingly gold and blue.

CREST: Approved 5 Feb 24. On a wreath, argent and gules, within a garland of trumpet vine, clasped hands clothed at the wrists, all proper.
